

Pedro

Song by Evelyne Rosier (Lyrics) & Richard Koechli (Album „Parcours“)

English Translation:

Around the world
Children on the street
Early in the morning, miserable jobs
Let's open our eyes, let's do our best
Let's connect with these mature angels

All the working children
They leave early in the morning
To earn the bread of the family

Courage in the soul
Pain in the hands
Courage in the soul
Hope for tomorrow

Our children here are lucky
You confuse "I want more!" and "Thank you"
We give them everything games, money and gold
Joy is not fairly distributed in this world

You, Pedro, you don't have that luck
You have no love and no dreams in your arms
The sun is shining everywhere, but inside you it's not warm
Let us pray for more justice

All the working children
They leave early in the morning
To earn the bread of the family

Courage in the soul
Pain in the hands
Let us pray hand in hand
Let us seek the Star of Destiny
Let us pray hand in hand
Let us seek the Star of Destiny
